

This is the Publication Scheme on information available under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 for Stramongate Primary School

The governing body is responsible for maintenance of this scheme.

1. Introduction: what a publication scheme is and why it has been developed

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (which is referred to as FOIA in the rest of this document) is that public authorities, including all maintained schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we must produce a publication scheme, setting out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish;
- The manner in which the information will be published; and
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is available in paper form.

Some information which we hold may not be made public, for example personal information.

This publication scheme conforms to the model scheme for schools approved by the Information Commissioner.

2. Aims and Objectives

The school aims to:

- provide all the children with a happy, secure, environment which will foster and encourage the development of sound moral and social values.
- believe that children learn best through active, experience based learning and that children should be encouraged to be independent, self-motivating learners. We believe that in this way children must be challenged and supported in order to develop their individual potential to the full.
- believe that every child is entitled to a broad and balanced curriculum which is relevant to the needs of the individual pupil.
- encourage attitudes of mutual respect, care, tolerance, sensitivity, compassion and co-operation towards others in our school and in our local and global community.
- believe that parents and school must work together in partnership to provide our children with the best possible education. This partnership must involve effective communication and will provide opportunities for parents to work with teachers inside and outside school.
- recognise that the school is an important element in the local community and we believe that our school must play an active life in the community. We must seek to develop active partnerships which will add to our children's learning opportunities.

- believe that children should be encouraged to care for their environment and should be aware that they can influence their surroundings in positive and practical ways.
- recognise the need for a periodic review of school aims, policy and organisation in order to ensure that standards remain high.

and this publication scheme is a means of showing how we are pursuing these aims.

3. Categories of information published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish (or have recently published) or which we will publish in the future. This is split into categories of information known as 'classes'. These are contained in section 6 of this scheme.

The classes of information that we undertake to make available are organised into four broad topic areas:

School Prospectus – information published in the school prospectus.

Pupils & Curriculum – information about policies that relate to pupils and the school curriculum.

School Policies and other information related to the school - information about policies that relate to the school in general.
